Professional Designations:

Certified Financial Planner (CFP®)

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”). The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements: a) complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas including insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning; b) pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination (10 hours over a two-day period); c) complete at least three years of full-time financial planning related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); d) agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct; e) complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years; and f) renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct.

Disciplinary Information - Item 3

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of Mr. Morgan and HNWAG. Mr. Morgan has no history of reportable legal or disciplinary events.

Other Business Activities - Item 4

Mr. Morgan is a licensed insurance agent and may recommend insurance products offered by various insurance carriers. Please be advised that there is a conflict of interest in that there is an economic incentive to recommend insurance carriers and other investment products offered through such insurance carriers. The firm addresses the conflict by disclosing the conflict to the client and makes recommendations that are in the best interest of the client. Please also be advised that Mr. Morgan strives to put his clients’ interest first and foremost, and clients are not obligated to purchase insurance products through Mr. Morgan. Mr. Morgan spends less than 5% of his professional time on insurance related outside business activities.

Mr. Morgan is the CEO of Grand Cru Concierge, LLC, a concierge wine broker service. This outside business activity is not investment related and Mr. Morgan spends 10% of his professional time on this outside business activity.

Additional Compensation – Item 5

Apart from the receipt of compensation from the outside business activities listed under Item 4 above, Mr. Morgan does not receive additional compensation or economic benefits from third party sources in connection to his advisory activities.

Supervision - Item 6
